Title: New and Emerging Therapies for Rheumatoid Arthritis: A Focus on Janus Kinase Inhibitors
Date: October 9, 2015 - October 8, 2016
Location: Online

Learning Objectives
After completing this activity, the participant should be better able to:

- Discuss current understanding on the immunopathogenesis of rheumatoid arthritis (RA)
- Describe the role of the Janus kinase/signal transducer and activator of transcription (JAK/STAT) pathway in the pathogenesis of RA
- Characterize important efficacy data of current and emerging JAK inhibitors in the treatment of RA
- Describe potential safety issues related to the use of JAK inhibitors in the treatment of RA

Target Audience
This program is designed for rheumatologists, primary care physicians, and other healthcare professionals who treat rheumatoid arthritis.

CME Accreditation Statement
This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Global Education Group (Global) and Axis Medical Education. Global is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation
Global Education Group designates this enduring material for a maximum of 0.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Policy Statement
Global Education Group (Global) requires instructors, planners, managers and other individuals and their spouse/life partner who are in a position to control the content of this activity to disclose any real or apparent conflict of interest they may have as related to the content of this activity. All identified conflicts of interest are thoroughly vetted by Global for fair balance, scientific objectivity of studies mentioned in the materials or used as the basis for content, and appropriateness of patient care recommendations.

Fee/Refund Policy
There is no fee for this educational activity.

Educational Support
This educational activity provides training necessary for licensed attendees to maintain state licensing requirements. The tuition for this educational activity is subsidized in full by an educational grant, including for those attendees who have successfully completed the state licensing requirements for their respective fields. This activity is supported by an educational grant from Lilly.
Complaint Procedures
Global Education Group is a division of Ultimate Medical Academy (UMA). UMA strives to make every learner experience a positive one. UMA Cares is dedicated to ensuring our learners receive the best possible service from faculty and staff and endeavor to address escalated concerns in a timely and professional manner. If you feel you have an escalated issue that requires resolution, call 1-800-509-5474 to speak to an associate.

UMA Accreditation
Ultimate Medical Academy is accredited by the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS). ACICS accreditation does not extend to continuing education programs.

Managing Campus
UMA’s Clearwater campus is the managing campus for this activity.